Extra expenses, such as compulsory fee to pay in loco, are always specified in the notes and details of the offer. All prices are inclusive of VAT (when applicable) and service commissions. In case of VAT increases, prices must be altered.

It may be changed up to 21 days prior to departure and only as a consequence of changes in, or additions to, the following.

- The price of the carriage of passengers resulting from the cost of fuel or other energy sources.
- The level of fees and taxes on the travel services included in the contract imposed by third parties not directly involved in the performance of the package, including landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports and airports.
- Exchange rates relevant to the package in question.

For these changes, reference will be made to the exchange rates and prices in force on the date of publication of the programme, as shown in the technical data sheet of the catalogue, or of the tailor-made travel offer, or on the date shown in any updates published on the website.

7. TERMINATION BY THE TRAVELLER

1. If, before the start of the package, the organiser is constrained to alter significantly any of the main characteristics of the travel services specified in Article 34(1)(a) of the Tourism Code, or cannot fulfil the specific requests expressed by the traveller and accepted by the organiser, or proposes to increase the price of the package by more than 8%, the traveller may terminate the contract without paying any penalties.

In the above cases, the traveller may:

- a) accept the alternative offer, if put forward by the organiser
- b) ask for the amounts already paid to be refunded.

2. In the event of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances occurring at the place of destination or in its immediate vicinity and which significantly affect the performance of the package or the carriage of passengers to the destination, the traveller is entitled to terminate the contract before the start of the package, without paying any termination fee, and to a full refund of any payments made for the package, (NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE FOR VOUCHER OR TRAVEL DESIGN) but is not entitled to additional compensation. The occurrence of an inability by the traveller to have the holiday does not justify termination without penalties, provided for by law, since the traveller can obtain protection against the financial risk associated with cancellation of the contract by taking out a suitable insurance policy, where not obligatorily provided for by the organiser.

3. In the event of termination of the contract by the traveller before departure, for any reason, even unexpected and arising suddenly, except in the cases listed in the first sub-paragraph or those provided for in Article 7(1), a penalty will be charged irrespective of payment of the down payment referred to in Article 5.

The amount of the penalty will be quantified by adding together: the individual handling fee, the Travel Design, the insurance premiums and the following percentages of the participation fee, calculated on the basis of how many days before the start of the trip the cancellation has taken place (calculation of the days does not include the day of cancellation, and the cancellation notification must be received on a working day prior to the start of the trip):

- later than 60 days: 10% for all trips and stays;
- from 39 to 59 days: 25% for all trips and stays;
- from 15 to 29 days: 50% for all trips and stays;
- from 3 to 14 days: 75% for all trips and stays;
- no refunds will be made after the above date.

(NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE FOR VOUCHER OR TRAVEL DESIGN IN ANY CASE)

Generally, the cancellation of bookings is subject to the cancellation charges indicated above. However, the cancellation of any booked service (hotels, restaurants, guides.etc.) may be subject to different cancellation charges, in the event of public holidays, fairs and demonstrations held in a certain city or country.

From the indication of the penalty percentage indicated above, trips which include the use of flights are excluded. In these cases the conditions relating to cancellation penalties are deregulated and much more restrictive and are previously indicated when listing the travel package.

In case the stay is interrupted, there will be no reimbursement, unless the group is able to present a specific declaration by the hotel management or other provider of the reserved services for consent to reimbursement, for services not used. This procedure must be followed without fail and the organizing agency will reimburse only the amount authorized by the hotel, after having detracted any applicable agency fees.

4. Some services may be subject to different penalties.

5. In the case of pre-established groups, these amounts may be agreed each time.

6. The organiser may terminate the package travel contract and offer the traveller a full refund of the payments made for the package, but is not obliged to pay additional compensation if:

a) the number of persons enrolled for the package is smaller than the minimum number stated in the contract and the organiser notifies the traveller of the termination of the contract within the period fixed in the contract but not later than 20 days before the start of the package in the case of trips lasting more than six days, seven days before the start of the package in the case of trips lasting between two and six days, 48 hours before the start of the package in the case of trips lasting less than two days;

b) the organiser is prevented from performing the contract because of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances and notifies the traveller of the termination of the contract without undue delay before the start of the package.

7. In the case of off-premises contracts, the traveller is entitled to terminate the package travel contract within a period of five days from the date of conclusion of the contract or from the date of receiving the contractual conditions and preliminary information, if later, without penalty and without giving any reason. In cases of offers with significantly lower rates than competing offers, the right of withdrawal is excluded. In the latter case, the organiser will document the variation in price and adequately highlight the exclusion of the right of withdrawal. (NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE FOR VOUCHER OR TRAVEL DESIGN IN ANY CASE)

8. No refunds will be made for unused services or vouchers once travel arrangements have commenced

8. CHANGES BEFORE DEPARTURE BY THE TRAVELLER

Changes requested by the traveller to already accepted bookings do not bind the organiser in cases where they cannot be met.

In any case, any modification request may involve a charge to the customer that will be communicated at the time of the modification request by the traveller.

NOTES:

1) a reduction in the number of passengers in a dossier is to be regarded as "partial cancellation" (see therefore Article 7.3)

2) in the case of several changes requested at the same time, only the highest penalty will be applied.

9. MODIFICATION OR CANCELLATION OF THE PACKAGE HOLIDAY BEFORE DEPARTURE BY THE ORGANISER

1. The Organizer reserves the right to unilaterally change the conditions of the contract, other than the price, if the change is insignificant. Communication is carried out clearly and precisely through a durable medium, such as e-mail.

2. If, before the start of the package, the organiser is constrained to alter significantly any of the main characteristics of the travel services specified in Article 34(1)(a) of the Tourism Code, or cannot fulfil the specific requests expressed by the traveller and accepted by the organiser or proposes to increase the price of the package by more than 8%, the traveller may accept the proposed change or terminate the contract, without paying any penalties.

3. In the event of termination, the organiser may offer the traveller a substitute package of an equivalent or higher quality.

4. The organiser will inform the traveller without undue delay in a clear and precise manner on a durable medium of the proposed changes and their impact on the price of the package.

5. The traveller must inform the organiser or intermediary of his decision within two working days of receiving notification of changes.

6. If the changes to the package travel contract, or to the substitute package referred to in sub-paragraph 2, result in a package of lower quality or cost, the traveller will be entitled to an appropriate price reduction.

7. In the event of termination of the package travel contract pursuant to sub-paragraph 2, and if the traveller does not accept a substitute package, the organiser must refund all payments made by or on behalf of the traveller, except in the cases mentioned below:

- a) there is no provision for compensation arising from cancellation of the package holiday when cancellation of the same depends on failure to reach the minimum number of participants that may be required;
- b) there is no provision for compensation arising from cancellation of the package holiday when the organiser proves that the lack of conformity is due to force majeure and fortuitous events;
- c) there is also no provision for compensation arising from cancellation of the package holiday when the organiser proves that the lack of conformity is attributable to the traveller or to a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel services included in the package travel contract and is unforeseeable or unavoidable.

10. ORGANISER'S LIABILITY FOR IMPROPER PERFORMANCE AND SUPERVENING IMPOSSIBILITY IN THE COURSE OF PERFORMANCE – TRAVELLER'S OBLIGATIONS – COMPLAINT TIMELINESS

1. The organiser is liable for the performance of the travel services included in the package travel contract, irrespective of whether those travel services are to be performed by the organiser, by the organiser's auxiliaries or agents when acting in the exercise of their functions, by third parties whose work the organiser may have recourse to, or by other travel service providers under Article 1228 of the Italian Civil Code.

2. In accordance with the obligations of fairness and good faith, under Articles 1175 and 1375 of the Italian Civil Code, the traveller must promptly inform the organiser, directly or via the retailer, taking into account the circumstances of the case, of any lack of conformity found during the performance of a travel service included in the package travel contract.

3. If one of the travel services is not performed as agreed in the package travel contract, the organiser will remedy the lack of conformity, unless this is impossible or excessively onerous, taking into account the extent of the lack of conformity and the value of the travel services affected by the lack of conformity. If the organiser does not remedy the lack of conformity, the traveller is entitled to a price reduction as well as to compensation for the damage which the traveller sustains as a result of the lack of conformity, unless the organiser proves that the lack of conformity is attributable to the traveller or to a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel services, or is unavoidable or unforeseeable or due to extraordinary and unavoidable circumstances.

4. Subject to the above exceptions, if the organiser does not remedy the lack of conformity within a reasonable period set by the traveller with the complaint made pursuant to sub-paragraph 2, the traveller may personally remedy the lack of conformity and request reimbursement of the necessary, reasonable and documented expenses; if the organiser refuses to remedy the lack of conformity, or if it is necessary to remedy it immediately, the traveller does not need to specify a time limit.

5. If a lack of conformity, within the meaning of Article 1455 of the Italian Civil Code, constitutes a significant failure to perform the travel services included in a package and the organiser has not remedied it within a reasonable period set by the traveller with regard to the duration and characteristics of the package, with the complaint made pursuant to sub-paragraph 2, the traveller may, without charge, lawfully terminate the package travel contract with immediate effect or, if necessary, request, pursuant to Article 43 of Italian Legislative Decree 62/2018, a price reduction, without prejudice to any compensation for damages. In the event of termination of the contract, if the package included the carriage of passengers, the organiser must also arrange the traveller's return with equivalent transport without undue delay and at no extra cost to the traveller.

6. Where it is impossible to ensure the traveller's return, the organiser will bear the cost of necessary accommodation, if possible of a category equivalent to what was provided for in the contract, for a period not exceeding three nights per traveller or for the longer period provided for in the regulations of the European Union on passengers' rights, applicable to the relevant means of transport.

7. The limitation of costs referred to in sub-paragraph 6 does not apply to persons with reduced mobility as defined in Article 2(1)(a) of Regulation (EC) No 1107/2006 and persons accompanying them, pregnant women, unaccompanied minors and persons in need of specific medical assistance, provided that the organiser has been notified of their particular needs at least 48 hours before the start of the package. The organiser may not invoke unavoidable or extraordinary circumstances to limit the liability referred to in this sub-paragraph where the transport service provider cannot rely on the same circumstances under applicable European Union legislation.

CHANGES AFTER DEPARTURE

8. If, due to supervening circumstances not attributable to the organiser, it is impossible, in the course of performance, to provide a substantial part, in terms of value or quality, of the combination of the travel services agreed in the package travel contract, the organiser will offer, at no extra cost to the traveller, suitable alternative solutions of a quality, where possible equivalent, or higher, than those specified in the contract, so that the performance of the package can continue, including the possibility that the traveller's return to the place of departure is not provided as agreed. If the proposed alternative arrangements result in a package of lower quality than that specified in the package travel contract, the organiser will grant the traveller an appropriate price reduction.

9. The traveller may reject the proposed alternative arrangements only if they are not comparable to what was agreed in the package travel contract or if the price reduction granted is inadequate.

10. If it is impossible to make alternative arrangements or the traveller rejects the proposed alternative arrangements, the traveller is entitled to a price reduction.

11. CHANGES TO THE PACKAGE TRAVEL CONTRACT BEFORE THE START OF THE PACKAGE

1. Upon prior notice given to the organiser on a durable medium not later than seven days before the start of the package, the traveller may transfer the package travel contract to a person who meets all the conditions for using the service.

2. The transferor and the transferee of the package travel contract are jointly responsible for the payment of the balance of the price and any additional fees (substitution fee to StyleAgency of €250 pp) , charges and other costs, including any administrative and handling costs resulting from such transfer.

3. The organiser will inform the transferor of the actual costs of the transfer. In the event of a travel contract with air transport for which tickets have been issued at a concessional and/or non-refundable rate, the transfer could involve the issue of new air tickets with the price available on the date of the transfer.

12. TRAVELLERS' OBLIGATIONS

a) Without prejudice to the obligation of prompt notification of the lack of conformity, travellers must comply with the following obligations. Travellers are obliged to inform the intermediary and the organiser of their nationality if they are not of Italian nationality, and must have an individual passport or other document valid for all the countries on the itinerary, as well as the visitor and transit visas and health certificates that may be required. Foreign citizens will find the corresponding information through their diplomatic agencies in Italy and/or through their respective official government channels. Tourists must also comply with the rules of normal prudence and diligence and the specific rules in force in the countries of destination of the trip, all the information provided by the organiser, as well as the regulations and administrative or legislative provisions relating to the package holiday.

Travellers will be held liable for all damages that the organiser may suffer as a result of their breach of the above obligations, including repatriation costs. The traveller is required to provide the organiser with all documents, information and elements in his possession which will be useful to the organiser for exercising the right of subrogation against third parties responsible for the damage, and is liable to the organiser for the prejudice caused to the right of subrogation. At the time of booking, the traveller must also inform the organiser in writing of particular personal requests that may be the subject of specific agreements on the travel arrangements, provided that it is possible to implement them. Since the organiser must check whether it is possible to implement them, before the conclusion of the contract, the traveller is always required to inform the intermediary and the organiser of any special needs or conditions (pregnancy, food intolerances, disabilities, etc.) and, at the same time, to sign his consent to the processing of sensitive data, and to explicitly specify the request for the relevant customised services.

Without such consent it will not be possible to comply with contractual obligations. Special requests made after the conclusion of the contract will not oblige the Organiser to implement them, since the contract is already executed as shown on the statement of account.

In any case, before departure, tourists must check with the competent authorities (for Italian citizens, the local police headquarters or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs through the website www.viaggiasesicuri.it or the Telephone Operations Centre at number 06 491115) for official information of a general nature regarding the country of destination, including information on the socio-political security situation, health, weather and climate and the documents required for access by Italian citizens.

Since these data are subject to changes and updates, the traveller must consult these sources to check their official wording before proceeding to purchase the package holiday. In the absence of such verification or in the event of an error, no liability for any missed departure by one or more tourists can be attributed to the intermediary or the organiser.

The above information is not contained in T.O. catalogues - online or on paper - since they contain descriptive information of a general nature as indicated in Article 38 of the Tourism Code and because they change over time. The same shall therefore be assumed by the Tourists, with express exemption from all liability of the Organiser, and any objection and/or claim against the same removed and waived as of now.

If, on the date of booking, it emerges from official information channels that the chosen destination is a place subject to a warning (special notice) for security reasons, the Traveller who subsequently exercises the right to withdraw cannot, for the purposes of exemption or reduction of the claim for compensation for the termination carried out, invoke the ceasing of the contractual cause connected with the country's security conditions.

b) VISAS & PASSPORTS

All Travellers traveling internationally are required to have a passport. Most countries require that the passport be valid for at least six (6) months beyond the conclusion of your trip. It is recommended you have a minimum of three blank pages in your passport when traveling, as many countries require blank pages. Multiple-entry visas are required for some vacations. Travellers are responsible for meeting all health and other requirements, and for any documents required by the laws, regulations, orders, and/or requirements of the countries you will visit.

If included in the package, Organiser may consult with appropriate consulates to determine if any visas are needed but is not responsible for obtaining all visas and entry documents if travellers not have passport requirements.

Visa requirements can change with little or no notice. It is Travellers responsibility to verify all visa and passport requirements before purchasing packages from Organiser.

Organiser cannot accept liability for any passenger refused entry onto any transport or into any country due to failure of the travellers to carry correct documentation.

c) REFUSAL OF ENTRY

Obtaining a visa does not equal to a contract giving travellers admission privileges - it only allows travellers to travel to the point of entry where the immigration would make a final decision whether allow or deny entry.

If travellers are denied entry into any country, they will be responsible to pay any fine or charge and for the cost of transporting from that country. The fare collected for carriage to the point of refusal of entry or deportation will not be refunded by the air company or Organiser.

In case travellers visa is denied before the departure date will be apply a penalty referred in Article 7.3 of this terms and conditions.

d) YOUNG TRAVELLERS

Travellers who are less than 18 years old on the departure date must be accompanied by an adult and share an adult's accommodations throughout the duration of the vacation. Due to heightened security, many countries have adopted practices to prevent international abductions of children. If a child will be traveling with adults other than the parents or with only one parent, it is recommended that a notarized letter be written by the parents or non-traveling parent granting authorization to travel, including the dates of travel. We suggest that you also contact the appropriate consulate and airlines because they may have additional requirements or recommendations. Prices and/or discounts for young travellers vary depending on the service / experience / package chosen.

e) SMOKING

Smoking is not allowed on transportation that is exclusively provided by Organiser, sellers and professionals. Passengers should check the smoking policies at individual hotels, airlines, cruise lines etc., for more specific information.

Some vacations have more restrictive regulations than these listed above. Please refer to your Travel Documents for more information.

Size and weight limitations for carry-on and checked baggage vary from airline to airline and even according to destination, and are becoming more restrictive.

Please check with your airline(s) directly for baggage information and regulations.

Organiser is not responsible for additional fees imposed by air carriers regarding baggage. Regulations within most airports require that travelers handle their own luggage through customs. No responsibility is accepted for loss of or damage to baggage or any of the traveler's belongings throughout the duration of the vacation. Insurance is recommended.

Carry-on bags should not exceed the dimensions of 12"x11"x6". Carry-on bags must be small enough to store in overhead bins or under the seat in front of you

b) AIR ARRANGEMENTS

Organiser, sellers and professionals are not responsible if an airline cancels, reschedules, or delays a flight for any reason. Organiser, sellers and professionals are not responsible for any additional expenses you may incur prior to joining your trip. Organizer, sellers and professionals are not responsible for and will not provide any refund for portions of trips missed due to canceled, rescheduled, or delayed flights. For air purchased through Organiser, sellers and professionals, if any air schedule requires an overnight stay in a gateway city, it is the traveller's responsibility to secure accommodations at travellers expense. X. CLIENT' OBLIGATIONS

a) Without prejudice to the obligation of prompt notification of the lack of conformity, client must comply with the following obligations. client are obliged to inform the intermediary and the organiser of their nationality if they are not of Italian nationality, and must have an individual passport or other document valid for all the countries on the itinerary, as well as the visitor and transit visas and health certificates that may be required. Tourists must also comply with the rules of normal prudence and diligence and the specific rules in force in the countries of destination of the trip, all the information provided by the organiser, as well as the regulations and administrative or legislative provisions relating to the service.

client will be held liable for all damages that the organiser may suffer as a result of their breach of the above obligations, including repatriation costs. The client is required to provide the organiser with all documents, information and elements in his possession which will be useful to the organiser for exercising the right of subrogation against third parties responsible for the damage, and is liable to the organiser for the prejudice caused to the right of subrogation. At the time of booking, the client must also inform the organiser in writing of particular personal requests that may be the subject of specific agreements on the service arrangements, provided that it is possible to implement them. Since the organiser must check whether it is possible to implement them, before the conclusion of the contract, the client is always required to inform the intermediary and the organiser of any special needs or conditions (pregnancy, food intolerances, disabilities, etc.) and, at the same time, to sign his consent to the processing of sensitive data, and to explicitly specify the request for the relevant customised services. Without such consent it will not be possible to comply with contractual obligations. Special requests made after the conclusion of the contract will not oblige the Organiser to implement them, since the contract is already executed as shown on the statement of account.

In any case, before departure, client must check with the competent authorities (for Italian citizens, the local police headquarters or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs through the website www.viaggiasesicuri.it or the Telephone Operations Centre at number 06 491115) for official information of a general nature regarding the country of destination, including information on the socio-political security situation, health, weather and climate and the documents required for access by Italian citizens.

Since these data are subject to changes and updates, the client must consult these sources to check their official wording before proceeding to purchase the service. In the absence of such verification or in the event of an error, no liability for any missed departure by one or more tourists can be attributed to the intermediary or the organiser. The above information is not contained in T.O. catalogues - online or on paper - since they contain descriptive information of a general nature as indicated in Article 38 of the Tourism Code and because they change over time. The same shall therefore be assumed by the Tourists, with express exemption from all liability of the Organiser, and any objection and/or claim against the same removed and waived as of now.

If, on the date of booking, it emerges from official information channels that the chosen destination is a place subject to a warning (special notice) for security reasons, the Traveller who subsequently exercises the right to withdraw cannot, for the purposes of exemption or reduction of the claim for compensation for the termination carried out, invoke the ceasing of the contractual cause connected with the country's security conditions.
